MODERATOR'S ADDRESS.

Fellow Ministers, Delegates and Visitors:

This being the twenty-seventh annual session and my fourth year as your presiding officer of this great High Point Educational Missionary Baptist Association, it so fills my heart with joyful thanksgiving to God for having spared us to assemble at this place.

It seems almost incredible that a year of our history has been erased from life's allotment since we met at Liberty Grove in our last session. We are living in a rapid and progressive age. More events are being crowded into limited space than there ever was before in the world's history. The result is that the days ripen into months and the months blossom into years ere we realize that time has rolled its ceaseless course. Yet God has so arranged time that we make proper use of every moment. Yet when we consider the progress made during the past years, we ought to be thankful.

In reviewing the work of the past four years I find it is no easy task to maintain the high standard of excellency already established, but I realize that continued activity is essential to attain the greatest efficiency in any vocation. We all agree that we are doing well and yet admit we can do better; but to do more the time now demands that we must get close together to accomplish better results. We as pastors and officers of our churches ought to unite in planning and acting, and let us contribute freely of our intelligence and thought when it will not be difficult for us to move on and continue to make progress.

Ability generally shows itself, and the usual sign of success is shown in continued progress.

We affirm our belief in the continued progress we are making and declare our faith in a brighter future and a better day intellectually and otherwise.

We want the spirit of Christ to continue among us in all our deliberations. Let us avoid personalities, and consider that there is not a delegate sent here so unimportant that he is not to be given a chance along with the others to discuss and express himself on all matters.

Our young preachers too shall have a better chance from year to year to exercise themselves in their work. Even up to now an honest examination on these little points, each brother will find that we have been doing just all that could be done to do justice to all concerned.

We fully understand that the preacher is a class that has known sorrows, but is a class of hallowed and heroic memories. No class of people in any age has done more to mould, shape sentiments and turn men in the right channel than the preacher. And I want to say to you fellow preachers, let us strive to keep the standard up by carefully preparing ourselves to do the work that we are expected to do.

Never try to pull another down in order to get up yourself. If you have been called of God follow him, and prepared to do God's service then in due time and at the right place God will open a way for you. You can rest assured that a large percentage of preachers roosting on the top rungs of the ladder of fame deserve their perch.

I shall present to you in brief the deliberations of my office.

Every institution and business person, in order to be successful must of necessity keep in touch with their constituents in order to know their conditions and needs. It is not expected for me to visit annually all the churches that make up this Association, but it is necessary for me to keep in touch with the large majority of them by means of correspondence and inquiries. I did, however, have the pleasure of visiting Locus Grove, Liberty Grove, Calvary, White Oak Grove, East Market St., McLeansburg and New Light, during the year, and I must say these churches gave me a hearty reception. I found them and their respective pastors getting on nicely. From what I have learned by observation and otherwise I can report to you that our Association with very few exceptions is in a flourishing condition.

The relation existing between the churches and the Association seems gratifying.

Most of the churches are supplied with pastors and only a few of them are in debt.

During the year my attention was called to unpleasant conditions existing in Militia Grove Church, and I submitted the case to the Missionary, Rev. Ware, for his consideration and by his visit there I think great good was accomplished. Also White Oak Grove and their pastor, Rev. D. Thacker, severed connection during the year and Rev. T. D. Ware acting in his capacity as Missionary rendered helpful assistance to the church. A full account of his work there will doubtless be given in his Missionary report. This is enough said to suggest Rev. Ware to be a man of enduring principles, intelligent and a faithful worker.

The other Missionary, Rev. G. W. Austin, was to the extreme end and as the churches were divided between the two Missionaries it kept us apart during the year, but their reports will give a full account of what they did during the year.

I will conclude my address with the following recommendations:

1. The Auxiliary. We recommend a hearty support of all churches and pastors to the Woman's Auxiliary in the local church and in their annual meetings.

We favor the work of our women being fostered until every church and pastor in our Association will be in accord with the work.

2. Education. Among us as Baptist, education is neglected as a whole and individually. I shall not recommend the establishment of a school, because we are not able to support one, but I do ask that the ministers encourage education everywhere. We have schools of our denomination and to them our boys and girls ought to go when they leave the public schools, so they can be trained in religious nurture. Our churches can not meet the demand of religious training in the church alone. Other denominations make special efforts to have the children of their members trained in their schools; and if we keep the standard and advancement made thus far by us in religious pedagogy we must not be slack along these lines. Let us ministers urge the members of our churches to educate their children in our Baptist institutions.

3. The Union Meeting has been neglected for lack of patronage, so I recommend, that we take it under consideration at this session and see what can be done about it.

4. The Sunday School Convention is making progress and I am asking every church to represent its school and B. Y. P. U. in the Convention next year.

5. The Missionaries have been complaining because some of the churches fail to give them appointments as they should. I must say for our missionaries as long as we put them on the field we ought to encourage them in every way possible.

6. As to Time of Meeting. I want to recommend that we assemble and open our session at night on the first day of the Association each year.

We trust these recommendations will be carefully considered and practiced if you adopt them.

I have left myself a little time to speak extemporaneously upon these some points in order to give you a better understanding of these vital questions. Then I shall close with the hope and prayer that God may bless and prosper you in your continued work for the Master's cause.

Let us pray for fresh power of the Holy Spirit on the whole work and workers.

Thomasville, N. C., Aug. 21, 1916.

To the Moderator and Members of the High Point Association, Assembled in its Twenty-Seventh Annual Session; This Brings Greetings:

First of all we feel very grateful to our Heavenly Father for the kind hand of Providence extended to each of us during the past twelve months, and for bringing us face to face in this our 27th annual session where we can greet each other as Christian workers, and extend the warm hand shake and a hearty God bless you. As we journey on toward the land of promise, for truly ours is a pilgrimage.

As your Recording Secretary I have striven to do my whole duty faithfully and punctually and if I have erred, the error was one of the head and not of the heart.

And in order to better prosecute the great work of this Association I earnestly ask the co-operation of every brother and sister in our bounds. Especially do I appeal to the executive board, and to all that may be assigned to committee work. Brethren see to it that all of your reports and all matter intended for your minutes are legible, or readable, so that the minutes can be properly compiled. Thus you will help your secretary and your printer and you will have a better minute, and we shall be better prepared to give the required status of the Baptists in this State.

With brotherly love for all and malice toward none, I am yours for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom.

R. E. CATUS, Recording Secretary.

Organized a church at Glen Raven, N. C.	2.00

March 5th I received a letter from Deacon W. A. Martin of the White Oak Grove Church asking me to come and hold the church meeting for them Saturday, March 18. I went and in the meeting I found that the pastor had left the church, and the church had given him a mortgage on their house of worship for $60.25, the amount due him for services. I commended them for securing their pastor, as they could not pay him at the time of their separation. I told them the debt could be paid in ninety days and must be paid in that time.

I got the church to launch a rally for the third Sunday in April. We raised on that Sunday $53.17. Of this amount I sent Rev. Thacker $50.25, leaving a balance of $10.00. The rally was continued to the third Sunday in May. On that day the church raised $29.15, making a total of $82.32 raised for the relief of the White Oak Church. Paid Rev. Thacker $60.25 and Rev. Ware $7.49, leaving a balance in church treasure of $14.58.

After paying the mortgage on, the church elected Rev. J. M. McBroom pulpit supply.

Total money raised on the field	$109.31
Paid Rev. Thacker	60.25
Paid Rev. Ware	34.48

To Balance	$14.58

I have preached 31 sermons, taught 14 Sunday school classes, delivered 14 lectures to Sunday schools. I am unable to give you the number of miles traveled by railroad, buggies and afoot.

T. D. WARE, General Missionary.

COMMITTEE OF ORDINATION.

We, your Committee on Ordination, beg to make the following report:

Two applicants appeared before us for ordination, Bros. A. L. Landingham and J. M. Trolinger. We found it a violation to the rules and regulations, and policy of the Association to ordain any applicant whose mother church was a member of any other Association in good and regular standing, especially those who come from the sister Association near by.

We therefore recommend these brothers to their home churches and their Association for ordination.

Respectfully submitted,

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. R. YOUNG,

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, report as follows:

As we see the great need of temperance in our churches, we appeal to every pastor and ask them to preach a temperance sermon not less than twice a year. We ask each minister and deacon to see to it that they totally abstain from all alcoholic drinks as a beverage and be partakers of all good things.

We further recommend that we ought to be as Christian workers; be temperate even in our talk as light holders for the Lord and in everything until we die.

Respectfully,

 E. DILWORTH,
 ZILPIA GREEN,
 EMMA J. DALTON,
 W. J. MARTIN.

CALLED MEETING, AUGUST 5, 1916.

The organizers of Auxiliary of the High Point Association met on the above named date opening by singing 167. The 6th chapter of Galation was read for the lesson. Prayer was offered by Rev. Gilmer. "Are you washed?" was sung.

The President and Secretary then presented the object of the meeting in a very unique way.

It was motioned that the Mt. Pisgah Baptist would go into the organization as an Auxiliary to the High Point Association.

By motion the following officers were elected:

Sister Polly Jeffries, President; Sister Sarah J. Lee, Vice President; Sister Bessie Lee, Treasurer; Sister Novella Jeffries, Secretary; Sister Dillie Shaw, Assistant Secretary.

It was then suggested by Bro. A. V. Jeffries that Martin Chapel would go into a temporary organization, and by motion the following officers were elected: Sister Laura Dickson, President; Sister Salome Jeffries, Secretary; Sister Cassie Martin, Treasurer.

After the election of officers for both churches the officers were asked to come forward and Sister Foster was asked to say a few words. She, in a very short and helpful way, gave the officers a very instructive talk. The Moderator then installed the officers and a collection was lifted.

THE NECESSITY AND BENEFIT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY IN EVERY CHURCH.

The important constituent in the church is woman. Their influence has become almost immortal. Wherever the Gospel is preached it is inseparable from the work and activities of woman. The Auxiliary as planned and prosecuted by us in our churches is a medium through which there can be a greater work done for Christ and Baptists. It is a long felt need. It is the only direct way to bring about a complete co-operation among our women in our churches. This co-operation, which the Woman's Auxiliary creates, is an absolute necessity to the success of every church. It is as much needed as the hand to the body. It is a way by which all our sisters can be actually represented in all our church work.

Every pastor should feel it his duty to do all in his power to aid the sisters to establish and maintain a splendid Auxiliary in his church for the reason it will add new life along all lines of church progress. The woman's work stands for what the Association stands for, Education, Mission and Orphan Home. The male members should help to raise this money in order that the Auxiliary can give some aid to these three causes, then help the women to shine in their small corners and you in yours, and each light for Christ.

MRS. G. A. TAYLOR,
President Woman's Auxiliary.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

As we see the great need of temperance in our churches, we appeal to every pastor, each Auxiliary, each member to be temperate in all things. In dressing, eating, talking and all intoxicating drinks.

Intemperance has destroyed so many homes. Let Philippians 4:8 be our guide in all things.

Respectfully,

COMMITTEE.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

We the delegates and members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the High Point Association heartily thank the pastor, church, and people of Thomasville for the generous hospitality toward us while in your city. You have made us welcome by throwing open the doors of your beautiful well kept homes. Bidding us enjoy them to the fullest. We have been invited to your tables, which have been well filled with things prepared to tickle the most sensitive palate.

We have been driven behind your fast stepping horses, and whizzed through the air in your Thomasville automobiles—in fact, enjoyed every privilege a kind, thoughtful person could bestow on a visitor.

For these many kindnesses, we desire to express our heartfelt appreciations assuring you we will never forget the people of Thomasville.
